

Ebey's Landing State Park Invasive Weeds Removed August, 2023

Sand Verbena, a native beach flower, is thriving since volunteers removed the invasive mustard that was taking over the picnic area.
↖ Find the bumble bee.

Thanks to our volunteers who pulled invasive weeds, more native plants can grow at Ebey's Landing State Park!

Native plants attract native bees and butterflies!

Website

FriendsofWhidbeyStateParks.org

Facebook

