

Fort Casey State Park

Fencing Around the Native Plant Area Repaired After Windstorms

The native plant area is behind the main Batteries on the bluff. Golden Paintbrush flowers here in the spring.

On a clear day you can see Mt. Rainier from here!

Thanks for repairing the fencing!

Website

FriendsOfWhidbeyStateParks.org

Facebook

